

PRESIDENTIAL SCHOLARS PROGRAM

Area Studies and Supplemental Course Options

Classes must be from the same category (Europe, Africa, Latin America, Asia). For example, a student may not take one class from Europe, one class from Latin America, and one class from Asia. However, classes may be selected from both category and subcategory. For example, if you are studying France, then you might select:

HIS 235—France subcategory

FRE 221—France subcategory

POS 141—Europe category

This list has been recently updated but some of these courses are not offered on a regular basis (e.g. IDS 121.xx- Texts & Contexts classes, and THE 275.01). Careful planning and selection of courses to meet requirements for the International Component are the responsibility of the student. Discussion of courses of interest while creating four-year plan of study and in advising appointments would be appropriate.
