

HONORS PROGRAM IN FAMILY AND CONSUMER SCIENCES

The Department of Family and Consumer Sciences at Illinois State University invites highly qualified Family and Consumer Sciences students of exceptional ability to apply for admission to the Department of Family and Consumer Sciences Honors Program. Students completing requirements will receive an Honors Degree in Family and Consumer Sciences which will be indicated on the student's official transcript.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

In order to be admitted to the Honors Program in Family and Consumer Sciences, the candidate must meet the following requirements:

1. be a full-time student at Illinois State University
2. be a declared major in Family and Consumer Sciences
3. have completed at least sixty (60) semester hours of post-secondary courses
4. have a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.3 on a four-point scale

Applications should be made to the Department Honors Advisor.

HONORS PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

In order to graduate as an Honors Graduate in Family and Consumer Sciences, a student must meet the standard university and department graduation requirements and have:

1. a university grade point average of 3.3
2. a department grade point average of 3.5
3. successfully completed two in-course honors in 200-level or higher courses in the student's areas
4. successfully completed one in-course honors course in a 200-level or higher course offered outside the Department of Family and Consumer Sciences
5. successfully completed a minimum of three (3) credit hours of Family and Consumer Sciences 299 – Honors Independent Study. In meeting this requirement, students must initiate Independent Study or Research under the guidance of faculty members.