

DEPARTMENTAL HONORS POLITICAL SCIENCE

Students with a major or minor in political science may be admitted to the departmental honors program provided she or he has:

- 1) Completed at least 30 semester credit hours of college or university level courses, including at least two political science courses
- 2) A minimum of three semesters remaining before graduation
- 3) A minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.3 and 3.5 in Political Science courses
- 4) Submitted to the department honors committee chairperson two letters of recommendation from faculty members
- 5) Received admission approval from the departmental honors committee

In order to graduate with Honors in Political Science a student must:

- 1) Complete all regular requirements for the Political Science major (or minor)
- 2) Complete 3 credit hours of in-course honors
- 3) Complete 3 credit hours in POL 302: Honors Seminar
- 4) Complete 3 credit hours of either POL 299: Independent Honors Study or a departmental senior seminar
- 5) Have at the time of graduation a cumulative GPA of at least 3.3 and a GPA of at least 3.5 in Political Science

Any student admitted to the University Honors program may earn honors credit by completing the honors requirements of either a designated honors course or of a course offering an in-course honors option. These courses are also open to qualified students not in the Departmental Honors Program.